Free Donuts, Chicken Dinner, Tropical Storms...

...and other strategies to engage the communities of North Florida in Risk MAP
Deployment

Quality

Awareness

Actions
A. Planning & Budgeting (3 Mos.)
   B. Discovery (5-9 Mos.)
      C. Data Development & Sharing (9-15 Mos.)

D. Risk Awareness & Mitigation Outreach (1-3 Mos.)
   E. Proposed NFIP Map Changes & Impacts (1-3 Mos.)
      F. Preliminary NFIP Map Release & Mitigation Planning (1-3 Mos.)
   G. Due Process & Path Forward (9-15 Mos.)

Discovery Meeting
Items Presented:
- Updated Discovery Map
- Draft Project Plan
- Draft Project Charter

Optional Flood Risk Review Meeting (in Phase C, D, or E)
Items Presented:
- Risk MAP Products (Flood Risk Map, Report, & Data Sets)

Resilience Meeting
- Review Potential actions to incorporate into mitigation plans

Preliminary FIRM Issuance

Consultation Coordination Officer (CCO) Meeting/Open House
Items Presented:
- FIRM (Regulatory)
- Final Risk MAP Products (Flood Risk Map, Report, & Data Sets)

Updated 12/8/10
Free Donuts, Chicken Dinner, Tropical Storms...

...and other strategies to ENGAGE the communities of North Florida in Risk MAP
Lure Them In
Build Credibility
Keep Them Engaged
Lure Them In

Build Credibility

Keep Them Engaged
Credibility

Character

Competence

Caring
Credibility

- Character
  - Competence
  - Caring
Resilient Communities

- Cultural Capital
- Natural Capital
- Financial Capital
- Human Capital
- Social Capital
- Political Capital
- Built Capital
Lure Them In
Build Credibility
Keep Them Engaged
How, When, Who?

Inform, Consult, Involve
RESILIENCE PREVIEW
Lower Suwannee Watershed
RiskMAP
Increasing Resilience Together

PER-CAPITA FLOOD LOSSES

Resilience Meetings will be held on November 20, 2013 at Suwannee River Water Management District (10 AM) and Fanning Springs State Park (3 PM)

42 identified areas of mitigation interest

Average Annual Flood Losses for the Lower Suwannee Watershed

$8.3M

For More Information Contact:
James Link (JAL@SRWMD.ORG)

Residential Losses $6.1M
Business Losses $1.3M
Human Losses ???