AGENDA

1. Introductions and Welcome – roll call by state to identify new participants.

3. Discussion of volunteer opportunities and other issues for implementation of the Arid Regions Work Plan for 2017 (Jeanne Ruefer & Bob Davies).

4. Update on planning activities for the 2018 ASFPM Annual National Conference, to be held in Phoenix (Teri George).

5. Other business.

6. Identify action Items.

7. Next Conference Call date: January 3, 2017 [Yikes! – Already?]

Other items of possible interest to Committee members

- The Resilience Dialogues website: http://resiliencedialogues.org/
  The Resilience Dialogues is a public-private collaboration that works to build climate-resilient communities through facilitated dialogues among scientists, practitioners, and community leaders. The website has information about resiliency and links to sites for cooperation and collaboration.

- ASFPM, as it has for 40 years, has issued a document providing input on the current status of flood risk management in the United States, and offering cooperation with the incoming administration and members of Congress on flood management issues. The document can be accessed at: ASFPM Transition Brief – 11-23-16